The Shorter Catechism

Not everyone shares my enthusiasm for the great reformed Confessions and Catechisms.

Unfortunately, we are moving in an anti-creedal direction. We live in a day that is marked by growing anti-authoritarianism and relativism; where religious ‘opinions’ are increasingly defining Christianity. But we mustn’t forget that our great Confessions and Catechisms are historic documents that were written by men, on whose very shoulders we stand today. The Bible says that the church is “the pillar and ground of the truth” (1Tim. 3:15). Therefore, these documents serve to preserve the sound teaching as contained in the Sacred Scriptures and to defend it against attack, the likes of which we are seeing so much of today. Not much has really changed over the centuries following the Protestant Reformation in that regard. A Confession of Faith is simply a faithful re-statement of faith, and therefore, we do well to be reminded (like a broken record, already…) that our Confessions and Catechisms challenge the Bible’s authority no more than if we were to say “Jesus is God”, or, that we are saved “by faith alone”.

Let me be clear: No Confession can usurp the Bible in authority (as they themselves make clear). I believe our trusted Confessions (such as this Catechism) are however, very faithful re-statements of the essential truths found in the Bible. Therefore, this Catechism is a simple a tool for teaching essential Christian doctrine to our family, and to our church.

A Catechism is assembled in the form of questions and answers, particularly useful for memorization. This form of instruction has been used by Christians for millennia. In 1 Cor. 14:19, and Galatians 6:6, Paul uses the Greek word katecheo, meaning to “teach”, or, “instruct” from which we get the English word catechize.

As James M. Renihan says; “The ‘faith once for all delivered to the saints’ (Jude 3) may be expressed in a variety of ways”. I believe the historic reformed Confessions and Catechisms are one such excellent way.

Included at the end, is The Lord’s Prayer (Mat. 6:9-13), and the Ten Commandments (Ex. 20:3-10). Following Luther’s example in his first catechism, these are also examined in this Catechism. As we learn the privilege of prayer, and to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord (Col. 1:10), may we realize the joy of His salvation, and live in the comfort of being truly rescued from our sin and misery.

      The Word of God is made up of the Old and New Testaments.

Q. 3. What does the Bible primarily teach?
   A. The Bible primarily teaches us what we must believe about God and what God requires of us.

Q. 4. What is God?
   A. God is a Spirit, Whose Being, Wisdom, Power, Holiness, Justice, Goodness, and Truth are Infinite, Eternal, and Unchangeable.

Q. 5. Is there more than one God?
   A. No. There is only one, the living and true God.

Q. 6. How many persons are there in the one God?
   A. Three. There are three distinct Persons in the one God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. These three Persons are one God, the same in substance and equal in power and glory.

Q. 7. What are the decrees of God?
   A. The decrees of God are His eternal plan based on the purpose of His will, by which, for His own glory, He has foreordained everything that comes to pass.

\[1\] or standard
Q. 8. How does God carry out His decrees?
   A. God’s decrees are carried out in His creation and providence.

Q. 9. What is creation?
   A. Creation is all that exists - God making everything out of nothing by His powerful Word in six days - and all very good.

Q. 10. How did God create man?
   A. By His divine power, God created man, male and female, in His own image; in knowledge, righteousness, and holiness, to rule over the other creatures.

Q. 11. What is God’s providence?
   A. God’s providence is His completely holy, wise, and powerful will, preserving and governing every creature and every action.

Q. 12. What did God’s providence specifically do for man whom He created?
   A. After the creation, God made a covenant with man to give him life if he perfectly obeyed; God also told him not to eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, or he would die.

   A. No. Left to the freedom of their own wills, our first parents sinned against God and fell from their original condition.

Q. 14. What is sin?
   A. Sin is disobeying, or not conforming to God’s law in any way.
Q. 15. By what sin did our first parents fall from their original condition?
   A. Our first parents' great sin was eating the forbidden fruit.

Q. 17. What happened to man in the fall?
   A. Man fell into a condition of sin and misery.

Q. 18. What is sinful about man's fallen condition?
   A. The sinfulness of man's fallen condition is twofold. First, in what is commonly called original sin, there is the guilt of Adam's first sin with its lack of original righteousness and corruption of his whole nature. Second, are all the specific acts of disobedience, which come from original sin.

Q. 19. What is the misery of man's fallen condition?
   A. By their fall, all mankind lost fellowship with God and brought His anger and curse on themselves. They are therefore subject to all the miseries of this life, to death itself, and to the pains of hell forever.

Q. 20. Did God leave all mankind to die in sin and misery?
   A. From all eternity and merely because it pleased Him, God chose some, out of grace, to have everlasting life. These He freed from sin and misery by a covenant of grace and brought them to salvation by a redeemer.

Q 21. Who is the redeemer of God's chosen ones?
   A. The only redeemer of God's chosen ones is the Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal Son of God, who became man. He was and continues to be God and man in two distinct natures and one person forever.
Q. 22. How did Christ, the Son of God, become man?
   A. Christ, the Son of God, became man by assuming a real body and a reasoning soul. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit in the womb of the virgin Mary, who gave birth to Him; yet He was sinless.

Q. 23. How is Christ our Redeemer?
   A. As our Redeemer, Christ is a Prophet, Priest, and King in both His humiliation and His exaltation.

Q. 24. How is Christ a Prophet?

   A. As a King, Christ brings us under His power, rules and defends us, and restrains and conquers all His and all our enemies.

Q. 27. How was Christ humiliated?
   A. Christ was humiliated: by being born as a man and born into a poor family; by being made subject to the law, and suffering the miseries of this life, the anger of God, and the curse of death on the cross; and by being buried and remaining under the power of death for a time.

Q. 28. How is Christ exalted?
   A. Christ is exalted by His rising from the dead on the third day, His going up into heaven, His sitting at the right hand of God the Father, and His coming to judge the world at the last day.
Q. 29. How are we made to take part in the redemption Christ bought?

A. We take part in the redemption Christ bought when the Holy Spirit effectively applies it to us.

A. The Spirit applies to us the redemption Christ bought by producing faith in us and so uniting us to Christ in our effectual calling.

Q. 31. What is effectual calling?

A. Effectual calling is the work of God's Spirit, Who convinces us that we are sinful and miserable, Who enlightens our minds in the knowledge of Christ, and Who renews our wills. This is how He persuades and makes us able to receive Jesus Christ, Who is freely offered to us in the gospel.

Q. 32. What benefits do those who are effectually called share in this life?

A. In this life those who are effectually called share justification, adoption, sanctification, and the other benefits that either go with or come from them.

Q. 33. What is justification?

A. The benefits in this life that go with or come from justification, adoption, and sanctification are: the assurance of God's love, peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Spirit, and growing and persevering in grace to the end of our lives.

Q. 37. What benefits do believers receive from Christ when they die?

A. When believers die, their souls are made perfectly holy and immediately pass into glory. Their bodies, which are still united to Christ, rest in grace until the resurrection.

Q. 38. What benefits do believers receive from Christ at the resurrection?
